Informal Letter

Sample Question

You have recently started work in a new company.

Write a letter to an English-speaking friend. In your letter

- explain why you changed jobs
- describe your new job
- tell him/her your other news

Note: This question is a bit tricky because they want you to write about a work related topic, but when it says 'write a letter to a friend', make sure you always use informal language.

Sample Answer

Dear Tom,

I'm just writing to let you know I quit my old job and found something new.

I was really fed up with being a brain surgeon because it wasn't really much of a challenge anymore. You know me; if I'm not learning new tricks, I get bored too easily and have to find something new.

I'm now teaching English as a foreign language in Vietnam and it suits me down to the ground. I teach two adult classes and a kindergarten class, which is not only challenging but also rewarding too. Can you believe it?

I also have some other amazing news—I'm getting married. She was one of my first ever students and I guess it was love at first sight for both of us. Make sure you keep the first weekend in July free, so you can come and celebrate with us.

Keep in touch.

Yours ever,
Chris.
